

Gold Medal for Consummate Craftsmanship

By ACC, 2024

Anne Wilson, Visual Artist & Educator | Evanston, IL
Wendy Maruyama, Furniture Artist & Educator | San Diego, CA
Nick Cave, Mixed Media Artist & Educator | Chicago, IL

Every two years, one or more Fellows are recognized as Gold Medalists, an award for a lifetime of achievement. It is the highest award given by the Council. Gold Medal awardees represent the extraordinary among a field of elite craftspeople. The significance cannot be overstated, and the value of material related to the individuals has proportional importance to the preservation and scholarship of American craft. Awardees are nominated by the College of Fellows and selected by the ACC Awards Committee.
